06/04/10: - Welbeck Awarded £409,000 From Football Foundation

Welbeck FC have been awarded almost half a million pounds from the Football Foundation.

The huge grant which targeting developments for new changing rooms, pavilion and football pitches – will undoubtedly enable the football club to offer better quality facilities and secure the future of the club.

Following the funding consultancy work over the last few months provided by Fundsport UK, the club were notified of the remarkable news which in the current financial climate is quite an achievement. It also marks a huge success for the funding consultancy firm. Over the last few years, various consultants have tried and failed in obtaining funding for the project. But Kirkby based Fundsport, have netted this result in less than a year.

The club along with Fundsport and the Football Foundation will make an announcement and presentation at the football club in due course.
